WITH THE LAWMAKERS OF THE SIXTY-FIRST CONGRESS

Proposed Mounds of Refuge.

The construction of fifty experimental mounds on which the people living along the banks of the Mississippi river may take refuge, together with their live stock, during seasons of flood, is the proposal that Representative Wallace is preparing to urge upon congress. He has introduced a bill for the appropriation of $50,000 for this purpose. "The government has constructed levees along the Mississippi river," explained Mr. Wallace today, "from the mouth of the Ohio to the head of the passes, sometimes fifteen miles back from the river. Between the levees and the river are more than one million acres of valuable farming land. As a result of the levee building policy of the government the five year property of the inhabitants on that million acres of land are threatened every time there is a flood. The levees tend to bank the water up over the land. The aborigines constructed mounds along the river on which they might take refuge, and I believe that owing to the policy of the government, long since adopted, it ought to construct new mounds for the present inhabitants."

Pay of the Postmasters.

A friend of the fourth-class Postmaster has come forth in the person of Representative Wallace of Arkansas, who has introduced a bill to give such officials as compensation 100 per cent of the first $50 of the gross receipts of his office; 80 per cent of the balance up to $1,000,000; the next $200, and 40 per cent of all further receipts. The bill provides that in no case shall the compensation exceed $250.

For Increase of Exports.

Under the terms of a bill introduced by Representative Stephens of Texas the President is authorized to enter into agreements with foreign countries for the purpose of obtaining enlarged foreign markets for the beef, pork and flour products of this country. It is provided that all meats and flour products shipped from this country shall be inspected under the pure food law and when up to the standard shall be accompanied by a certificate of inspection. In view of the advantages to the United States accruing from this arrangement this country is to provide for a reduction for a period not to exceed five years of the duty on goods designated in the agreement, the reduction not to exceed 30 per cent. The United States may change from the dutiable to the free list goods, wares or merchandise the natural product of any foreign countries entering into the agreement.

Land Allotment to Indians.

Representative Burke of South Dakota has introduced a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to allot 329 acres of land to every woman belonging to the Crow, Creek and Lower Brute tribes of Indians in South Dakota, now living and who was not entitled to an allotment under the law by which allotments were previously made in the Sioux Indian reservation in Dakota.

Home for Good Indians.

An "Indian home," for good Indians, is the first proposal that Representative Creager, a new member from Oklahoma, has made to Congress. He has introduced a bill for the appropriation of $1,000,000 for the establishment of such a home in Oklahoma, in which the Indian arts and sciences would be taught.

Campaign Badges for Civilians.

Campaign badges, as commemorative of the Spanish and Philippine campaigns, which are authorized to be issued to enlisted men of the army may also be issued to "regularly accredited military attaches or observers from foreign governments, to war correspondents regularly employed by the press, and to other persons who voluntarily accompanied or rendered assistance to the army, and to officers of the United States Navy and Marine Corps who served with the army ashore." The bill recent introduced by Senator Warren becomes a law.

Now for the Last Shopping Day Before Easter!

Every Apparel Need in the Greatest Variety—Every Purchase Will Be Charged.

Your Easter Suit.

Well Dressed Men in the Easter Parade Will Wear Hecht Clothes.

On dress occasions Hecht Clothing shows at its best. When you expect most of it it levels up with every expectation. That's why you can feel well dressed in Hecht Clothing, and know that no style or quality point has been overlooked.

There are three main things the people want to know when buying clothes: First, that they are going to be dealt with fairly and squarely; second, that they are going to receive full one hundred cents' worth of value for every dollar of investment; third, that in case of dissatisfaction the matter will be made right without question, quibble or controversy. "Experience," the ablest of all instructors, has taught the clothing buyers of Washington that these three features form the foundation of the Hecht Stores' phenomenal success.

Tomorrow have a look at the Suits in the $20 and $25 grades—suits no custom tailor could begin to match under $30 to $35. They're the suits that have our best attention, and come nearest to realizing the ultra-high standard set for all Hecht Clothes. The country's best tailors create them—the country's best dressers wear them.
